

MANZONI BIANCO

Grapes: Manzoni Bianco

Manzoni Bianco is a distinguished wine crafted from the eponymous grape variety, created in the 1930s by Professor Manzoni at the prestigious Conegliano School of Oenology by crossing two noble varieties: Rhein Riesling and Pinot Blanc.

It is celebrated for its vibrant freshness and mineral character, boasting aromas of white flowers, citrus and exotic fruits.

Ideal with tuna tartare and carpaccio, pasta with seafood, grilled fish and fried fish.
